To

CAPTAIN JAMES BRADSHAW—U.E.L.

A tired, sick, old man, who gave up his home, possessions, and friends, suffered imprisonment, and came to a strange country to carve a new home in the primitive forest . . . because he believed in a principle.

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO HIS MEMORY.

Foreword

Oshawa, Ontario,
July 21st, 1942.

Dear Friends:—

After more than four years of constant research, by Mr. Manley Ostrander and the writer, it is indeed a pleasure to finally present you with a Bradshaw Genealogy. The information in this book has been obtained from reliable sources, and, to our knowledge, is true and authentic in every detail. No work of this kind, however, can be claimed infallible, so you are therefore requested to note any errors, or omissions, in the page provided in the back of this booklet. Are you one of those persons that never keep records of your family? If so, you will have no further excuse to fail in that duty since pages have been provided in the back for the recording of births, marriages and deaths.

It is our sincere wish that this little volume will bring to the younger generations a pardonable pride in their ancestry; revive many happy memories in the minds of the older folk; and give to all of us a deeper sense of our own responsibilities as citizens of a democratic country.

Sincerely yours,

C. G. Crouse, publisher.

The Origin of The Bradshaw Family

FIRST CHAPTER

The name Bradshaw is decidedly of English origin and means "the vast wood" the word first being applied to a place near the present City of Halifax, in Lancashire, and later to inhabitants of the town. The first mention of the name in existing records is that of a Sir John Bradshaw who lived in England over 900 years ago at the time of the Norman Conquest. The bearers of this name in England were mostly of the Landed Gentry and lesser nobility and lived in the North West Counties. Thomas de Bradshawe, 1339, was the sire of the first recorded family of this name and among his descendants is the celebrated Judge John Bradshaw, 1602-1659, who presided at the trial of Charles I, and was first to sign his death warrant. William, b.1596; Henry, b.1600; Francis, b.1603; were brothers of John and sons of Henry Bradshaw and Catherine Winnington, who were married Feb. 4th, 1593. This family were Puritan followers of Oliver Cromwell and with the restoration of the Monarchy under the Stuart line in 1661, the members of the various branches fled to the American Colonies and Ireland in order to save their heads.

In old Irish records the following Bradshaws are mentioned, viz, John Bradshaw of Ballinderry; William Bradshaw and John Bradshaw of Mageragall; all of County Antrim; listed in Hearth Money Rolls for 1669. Joseph Bradshaw born in Cheshire, England, died March 23, 1673, buried in County Kilkenny, had a son Joseph. In County Monaghan, at Fermagh, the following are buried; Valentine Bradshaw 1685-1757, Ann Bradshaw d.1752, James Bradshaw, d.Oct. 28, 1778, age 48, another James Bradshaw 1731-1801. Merrion Graveyard, Dublin; Mary Bradshaw 1674-1772, Elizabeth Bradshaw 1745-1821, wife of William. Mary (above) was mother of same William. Count Edmund Bradshaw and Joseph Bradshaw were Commonwealth soldiers settling in Ireland in 1661. Among old Irish Wills the following are found; Richard Bradshaw of Co. Kildare, in 1596, John Bradshaw of Co. Monaghan, tanner, in 1681, John Bradshaw, merchant, in Dublin 1714, Rev. John Bradshaw of Co. Meath in 1731.

The Milecross family lived about one mile from Newtonards, County Down, and were very prominent people. The family was established by a Cromwellian soldier named Captain James Bradshaw who was born in Yorkshire in 1619, joined the army of Parliament in 1639, and died Sept. 14, 1686, from wounds received at Drogheda in 1649. His wife, whom he married on April 22, 1656, was Ann Patterson, a daughter of Judge Robert Patterson of Isle of Man. Of this union there was a large family but records exist on only one member, James Bradshaw, 1679-1754, who married Anna Turner in 1707, and whose descendants own "Bradshaw's Brae" as it is still called. This family, who were "near relatives" of Judge John Bradshaw, the regicide, engaged in farming and the linen business and had a bleaching green at Milecross. The Bradshaws were members of the Quaker sect but later became Anglicans.

NOTE: Although much time and effort has been spent to connect the Canadian Bradshaw family to these Irish families, to date the compilers have not been successful. The foregoing information is presented only as clues for those who wish to carry on this Genealogy at some future date. While definite proof is still lacking, we are quite certain that our Bradshaw family is descended from the Milecross family, for the following reasons, viz: 1. Our own "Captain Bradshaw" was a native of Ireland and his family were Quakers and Anglican. 2. William Bradshaw, the original American settler, called his new Colonial home "Bradshaw's Hill" or "Brae" and tried to establish a linen business in America. 3. When Captain Bradshaw established an Anglican Chapel in his wilderness home in Canada it was called "St. Warburg's" Parish, which was the name of the Parish at Newtonards, Co. Down. 4. The definite similarity in the names of the Milecross family and the Connecticut family. These views are also shared by Genealogists, who assisted in this work, both in Ireland and in the United States. The Coat-of-Arms shown in this book were carried by both the English and the Irish families. The old tombstone pictured is from Newtonards, County Down, seat of the Milecross family.

Family of William and Mary Bradshaw

SECOND CHAPTER

William and Mary Bradshaw came to America from Ireland about 1728-30, and settled in the Connecticut Colony of New England. The first mention of the family is made when William bought 10 acres of land from Nathan Terrill on Dec. 4, 1730, and 12 acres from Jeremiah Canfield on March 17th, 1731. These records, from the land books of New Milford, inform us that the land was undivided and that Mr. Bradshaw was "now" a resident of New Milford which indicates that he had probably just settled there. From time to time more land was added to the holdings and the Bradshaw family became extensive landowners. The place where they settled was known as 'Punkin Hill' but later was called 'Bradshaw's Hill' and was located on the road between Newton and New Milford at a place called 'Still River Neck' at the Great River. This river is now named the Housatonic, and with the other places mentioned is located in Litchfield County, State of Connecticut. On the 30th. day of May, 1734, William Bradshaw made his Will and died three months later on August 7th, 1734. He named his wife Mary, and his friend Samuel Canfield, as his Executors, and left the following possessions; Flax hackels, a Loom, and cards; a feather bed, six books, and a fiddle, as well as home utensils, and his land real estate. (A copy of the Will is enclosed herewith). It is quite evident that he intended to establish a linen industry in America but found conditions much different to those in his native Ireland. After his death, the elder sons John and James, carried on the land business and bought, sold, and leased, their lands along the Great River. Mrs. Mary Bradshaw died about 1747 at New Milford and her possessions were left to her son Thomas.

THEIR FAMILY:

1. Eleanor, m. James McKinney at N.M. Feb. 10, 1741. n.r.
2. John, m. Sarah Videtto (see Genealogy below).
3. James, m. Rachel Bostwick, (2) Lydia Moss, (Chap. III).

5. Anne, m. ..... Burden, no records.
6. Thomas, died March 10, 1753, n.r., prob. unm.

NOTE: This family must not be confused with that of Humphrey Bradshaw, 1614-1682, an English settler in Massachusetts in 1642.

Family of John and Sarah Bradshaw

JOHN BRADSHAW was a native of Ireland and the eldest son of William and Mary Bradshaw. At New Milford on June 4th, 1740, he married SARAH VIDETTO of Danbury, (prob. dau. Stephan and Mary Videtto) and had five children.:—

* Samuel Brownson was a United Empire Loyalist and a Corporal in the King's Rangers during the revolution. With his son, Samuel, Jr., he settled near his brother-in-law Captain Bradshaw, on the west half of Lots 18 and 19 in the 4th Concession of Fredericksburgh. The Brownsons were members of the St. Warburgh Parish and donated the ground for an Anglican burial-ground.

Captain James Bradshaw, U.E.L.

THIRD CHAPTER

James Bradshaw was born in Ireland about 1723 and was a son of William and Mary Bradshaw of New Milford, Connecticut. His first business venture was at real estate as a result of having land left to him when his father, and his brother Thomas, passed away. He also entered into the fishing business with his brother-in-law, Samuel Brownson, and operated a shop (on the west side of the Great River) for the catching, curing, and selling, of fish. Later on he decided to go into the landowner business in earnest and organized a Land Company with 22 associates from Connecticut. On the 11th. day of May, 1762, they acquired 23,000 acres of land from Benjamin Wildman in Albany County, New York Province. This land was known as the 'Kingsbury Patent' and covered an area six and one half miles square. When the great Albany County was split up into smaller Counties this area was renamed Charlotte County, and was later changed to Washington County after the American Revolution. The first to enter the tract was Bradshaw himself, who came in 1763, but did not bring his family until June of the following year. James Bradshaw sold land to Simeon Chandler on Nov. 12th, 1760, and with the proceeds he bought 500 acres of the 'Kingsbury Patent' which was later called 'Bradshaw's Township', for the sum of £60. On May 7th, 1764, he sold more of his property, to Benjamin Roburds, before finally moving to his New York property. The shop in New Milford was lost when Henry Franklin foreclosed on a Mortgage which was made to acquire funds for the Land Company.

When the original thirteen Colonies revolted with a Declaration of Independence in 1776, the people had to make a choice of joining the rebels or remaining loyal to the Crown. Among the latter we find James Bradshaw, of Kingsbury, who received a Commission as a Captain in 1777 and served in DeLancey's Brigade until 1779 when he was captured and imprisoned in the Oesopus Goal below Albany. His house and barn were burned when Major Carleton retreated and he lost his farm, woodlands, a share in a saw-mill, and suffered much from his loyalty to George III, and the British cause. How he escaped his captors is not known but he managed to reach Montreal where he was quartered on November 24th, 1780. At Berthier later he petitioned Sir John Johnson for relief in a letter dated January 5th, 1781. As a result of this appeal he was placed in a a Company of Pensioners of the King's Royal Rangers and was residing at Soriel in 1783 on a pension of £5.0 per month as a Lieutenant (obviously reduced in rank as a non-combatant).

When the Treaty of Ghent ended the American Revolution in 1783, 'Captain' Bradshaw, as he was familiarly known, came with the disbanded troops up the St. Lawrence River, spent the winter in tents at Cataraqui and subsided on rations until provision was made for settlement. He was Incorporated as a Loyalist in the year 1780.

Captain Bradshaw and his three loyalist sons; David, Asahel, and James, settled with Major Roger's group in Fredericksburgh Township, then called the "3rd. Town", and went about the task of building homes in the wilderness. On July 12th, 1797, his land grant was confirmed for 300 acres, although he had been living on the land for 10 years, and the place became known as Lot 14, on the 5th. Concession of Fredericksburgh, where the M.E. Church was built some years later. On Feb. 25th, 1788, David Bradshaw went to Montreal to represent his father and give evidence to the Claim Board in an effort to collect damages suffered by Captain Bradshaw in the War of Independence. In the evidence David claimed his father was old and infirm and therefore unable to attend personally; was a native of Ireland; had 56 acres improved and well-fenced (at Kingsbury) which he valued at £3.0 per acre; had nearly 450 acres of woodland valued at 16 shillings per acre; and lost furniture and farming utensils. David also produced an affidavit from Ensign Thos. Sherwood to the effect that Bradshaw was imprisoned in Oesopus. Moses Williams supported the testimony of the Claim, and the sons were granted 2,000 acres of land on Nov. 16, 1797. Captain Bradshaw's home became known as "St. Warburgh's Parish" of the Anglican Church and some of the first Anglican services in Upper Canada were held in his home. The Rev. John Langhorn*, according to his papers of 1789, conducted services there (as well as Marriages, and Baptisms), and finally buried his old friend 'Captain' James Bradshaw, in February, 1797. So ends the story of one of the founders of Ontario, the Banner Province of Canada, a real pioneer in every sense of the word and a firm United Empire Loyalist.

FAMILY OF JAMES AND LYDIA BRADSHAW

Captain James Bradshaw was born about 1723 in Ireland, was married twice and died in Canada, February 20, 1797. His first wife was Rachael Bostwick who was born June 17th, 1721, and died January 18th, 1752. They were married at the Congregational Church in New Milford by the Rev. Nathaniel Taylor, on September 19th, 1750. Of this union, David Bradshaw was born December 29th, 1751, and died January 13th, 1752, in infancy.

The second wife of James Bradshaw was Lydia Moss, a widow, and a daughter of Eli and Mary Roburds. They were married by Rev. N. Taylor on February 13th, 1753, at New Milford, and had the following issue born there:—

Thomas, b. Nov. 25th, 1754, no records, remained in Kingsbury.

Lois, b. Sept. 10th, 1757, no records.

David, b. February 5th, 1759, a U.E.L. (Chapter 4.)

Asahel, b. February 15th, 1761, a U.E.L. (Chap. 5.)

James, b. April 2nd, 1763, a U.E.L. (Chap. 6.)

 In his Report of Nov. 12th, 1787 Rev. Langhorn stated that he preached and Baptised eight children at Captain Bradshaw's in the 3rd Town and that Bradshaw is assisted in devine service by a man named Smith.*

David Bradshaw, U.E.L.

FOURTH CHAPTER

DAVID BRADSHAW was born in New Milford, Connecticut, on February, 5th, 1759, and went to New York Province with his parents, James and Lydia Bradshaw, in 1764. He became a mechanic by trade and although he did not take up arms for the Tory cause during the American Revolution he served as an Artificer in the Engineer's Department during the struggle. His name appears on the Provision List in 1786 and he was likely stationed at Catarauqui (Kingston) with his father and brothers, Asahel and James, and came up to Fredericksburgh with Roger's group of United Empire Loyalists. He originally settled on Lot 13, Concession 5, of Fredericksburgh, in Lennox-Addington County, (which land was Granted by the Government Committee on Nov. 16th, 1790) and later on acquired Lot 20 in same Concession. On July 22nd, 1797 he received 400 acres as a son of a Lieutenant and was given a Certificate for Lots 98, in Concessions 1 and 2 of Ameliasburgh in Prince Edward County but found that the land was already in possession of the Hon. Richard Cartwright and he then received alternate lands in Lennox-Addington. On January 14th, 1808, he was returned to the U.E.L. List and served in the Militia in the War of 1812-14. In the 1808 Assessment Roll, for Fredericksburgh Township, he was listed as possessing 273 acres of wasteland; 15 acres of cleared land; 1 horse; 3 cows; and lived in a round-log house. He was married to ISABELLA McKAY on November 25th, 1784, by the Rev. John Bethune, and had the following issue:—

Lydia, Baptised Nov. 13, 1787, m. George Smith of Fred., Grant: Feb. 25, 1812.

The United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada was incorporated by Special Act of Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, Chapter 146, 4-5, Geo. V., 9114, 27th day of 1914.

N.B.—Those Loyalists who have adhered to the Unity of the Empire, and joined the Royal Standard before the Treaty of Separation in the year 1783, and all their children and their Descendants by either sex, are to be distinguished by the following Capitals affixed to their names—UE—alluding to their great principle, The Unity of the Empire.

Asahel Bradshaw, U.E.L.

FIFTH CHAPTER

ASAHEL BRADSHAW was born February 15th, 1761, at New Milford, Conn., a son of James and Lydia Bradshaw. He went with his parents to the Kingsbury Patent in New York and joined the King's Royal Rangers in the service of George III. during the War of Independence. He served under Major James Rogers and was at St. John's, Quebec, on January 10th, 1782, and in Catarauqui in 1783, finally settling in Fredericksburgh Tp. (Lennox-Addington), where he was on the Provision List in 1786. The Land Board presented him with 500 acres of land for his services as a United Empire Loyalist and a son of a Lieutenant. In later years he acquired more land, owning 1000 acres in Fredericksburgh; 600 acres in Rawdon Tp.; Hastings Co., and 200 acres in Loughborough, Frontenac County. In the Fredericksburgh Tp. Assessment Roll of 1808, he possessed 940 acres of untilled land; 60 acres cultivated; 4 horses; 5 cows; and lived in a log house. On Jan. 22, 1811 Asahel Bradshaw mortgaged his Hastings Co. and Frontenac Co. property for £394, 15s., 4d., to Richard Robison of Fredericksburgh Tp. He was a shoemaker by trade and was probably one of the first to ply that trade in the Napanee district. He was also interested in other needs of his neighbors as he, and his cousin Sam Brownson, operated a 75 gallon Still which was Licensed on April 5th, 1802. AZUBAH HAWLEY, daughter of Jeptha Hawley, became his bride and twelve children were born of this union:—

Esther, Bapt. Sept. 9, 1792, died May 23, 1861, m. Apr. 10, 1808 to Rev. John Ham, 1786-1843; is. 13, Grant: Feb. 23, 1809, set. Napanee District.

Martin H., Bapt. June 8, 1803, Grant; Dec. 21, 1840, set. Thurlow Tp., Hastings County.

George, Bapt. Aug. 28, 1805, died Aug. 17, 1867, Grant: May 1, 1834, set. Portland Tp., Frontenac Co.

Leslie D., Bapt. Sept. 2, 1810, Grant: April 19, 1838, set. Darlington Tp. Durham Co.

Rachael, Bapt. Nov. 1, 1812, (no records.)

NOTE—The word "Grant" following the names of these children of the Loyalists, is an abbreviation noting a land grant given by the Government, which usually consisted of 200 acres.

James Bradshaw, U.E.L.

SIXTH CHAPTER

JAMES BRADSHAW was born in New Milford, Connecticut, on April 2nd. 1763, the youngest child of James and Lydia Bradshaw. As an infant he was taken to a wilderness home in the "Kingsbury Patent" near Albany, New York. At the age of eighteen he joined DeLancey's Brigade and served until the end of the Revolution in 1783. He came up to Montreal and joined his father and brothers in Captain James Roger's (also known as Major Rogers) Company of the King's Royal Rangers, and was on their Provision List in 1785. As a United Empire Loyalist, and a son of a Lieutenant, he was Granted 500 acres of land in Frederiscksburgh Township of Lennox-Addington County, on November 16th, 1797. In the 1808 Assessment Roll of Fred. Tp. he had 480 acres of land in bush; 20 acres cleared; lived in a log cabin; and had 1 horse; 4 cows, and 1 swine. On January 15th, 1788 he was married to MARGARET (PEGGY) BOWEN, by the Rev. John Langhorn, and settled along the Bay of Quinte in Hastings County where many of his descendants lived in later years.
